About the Camp

English Summer School is an English program designed for children ages 5–11, offering an extra boost in English learning combined with fun and meaningful experiences.

Students will enjoy 16 hours of engaging English lessons weekly focused on communication, confidence, and Cambridge-based skills, taught by native English teachers. The program also features one full-day trip, giving children the chance to explore real-life settings, practice English in authentic situations, and build lasting memories with friends.

With small group sizes, international teaching standards, and a warm, supportive environment, English Summer School is the perfect opportunity for your child to continue their journey of growth and discovery this summer.
